Best Practice: Endowed Prizes to Meritorious Students

(B.Ed., M.Ed., Research students and Alumni of Tilak College of Education, Pune)

Endowed Prizes to Meritorious Students by Tilak College of Education in the name of various Endowments instituted in the College.

1. Objectives

- To award various prizes through the endowment grants to the Meritorious Students in the Tilak College of Education and its alumni
- To identify meritorious students in the Tilak College of Education field for the endowment prizes.
- To encourage the ambition of the students and develop their interest to make them fit for the endowment awards.
- To inculcate interest among the students and work to accomplish these awards.

2. The Context

The College institutes various endowments for the award of prizes to students who perform meritoriously in the Savitribai Phule University annual examinations. The award is meant to encourage the candidates in B.Ed. M.Ed. Ph.D. Programmes, Research and Administrative activities in the field of Education. The candidates are selected on the basis of their performance in the university examinations, Research and administration. There are many donors willing to institute endowments for the award of prizes and medals to the candidates who perform meritoriously in the subjects of their choice. The important primary work of the university is to identify meritorious candidates in the subjects of the choice of the donor with the details of the kind of prizes and medals. All these prizes are awarded to the candidates in the Annual Prize distribution Programme of the College.

3. The Practice

In Practice, 44 Prizes are given to candidates who perform meritoriously in the university annual examinations Research and administration. A separate account is maintained in the College in the name of endowment account. The prizes are awarded to the prize winners during the Annual Prize distribution Programme of the College periodically from the interest amount accrued from out of the endowment deposits. The donors prescribe various norms for the award of prize and endowments instituted by them. The interest accrued on the fixed deposit is utilized for the award of prize in the form of cash prize for the candidates under the following conditions:

1. The name of the prize is indicated
2. The value of Cash Prize is indicated for the award annually to a student who has secured the First Rank obtaining highest total marks in all the papers including Electives, having passed all the Examinations at the first attempt in in B.Ed. M.Ed. Ph.D. Programmes, Research and Administrative activities in the field of Education.
3. The Management of the Shikshan Prasarak Mandali- The mother institute shall have powers to make changes in terms and conditions as new circumstances may necessitate to the main purpose of the Endowment in consultation with the donor.

4. Evidence of Success

The Shikshan Prasarak Mandali deposited the entire endowment amount in the bank account. The endowment prizes are given from the interest received from the bank. The College has continued to award the prizes from last 80 years by the Tilak College of Education. The students studying in the Tilak College of education are working hard to get endowment prizes. The Stake holders are appreciating the College for their Efforts to give endowment prizes to the meritorious candidates.

5. Problems encountered

Generally, every administrative activity is encountered by one problem or the other. In this case, very minor problems have been encountered for e.g. the donors do not prescribe required norms. The invested money in the endowment may not be sufficient to award prizes and medals as per the choice of the donor. The donors do not increase the endowment fund to suit the present hike in prices. The donors do not amend the terms and conditions if a change is required. The college rectifies these problems by intimating to the donors with the request to visit the College to apprise the donors adequately. The donors are also generally advice to increase the investment according to the rise in prices.
